

Reading like a writer

1. Read your assigned text again.
2. How does the author craft their writing piece? Look at the following to see if they have made any interesting “Craft Moves” to enhance their piece.
 - How long is the text?
 - How is the text organized?
 - Is there any interesting text features or punctuation?
 - How does the title relate to the piece?
 - How do language choices contribute to the piece?
 - Which sentences are most effective? Why?
 - How does the writer appeal to the reader?
